Cllrs will keep a close eye on this going forward. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Until we know what Somerset Council's budget will be, we don't know what services they might then say they can't afford to run anymore, and whether or not those services will then devolve onto parishes or be lost.</li> <li>- The boundary commission report is due on the 3rd of March.</li> <li>- It's the 125th anniversary of Minehead Lifeboat station on the 3rd of March.</li> <li>- Mrs Worrall contacted the member of parliament Rachel Gilmour to try and get speedier work done on repairing their gutter.</li> <li>- There has been no further information on the car park consultation.</li> <li>- No further information has come through about the speeding issues around Luckwell Bridge. The council is still trying to find out who owns the triangle of land. Residents are encouraged to report any near misses and write to the council with any specific incidents to build up evidence of how dangerous it is. It was suggested for a minibus to pick up the school children which may make it safer.</li> <li>- There are some big ash trees near roads which are on Badgworthy Land with ash dieback which could cause serious safety concerns if they fall. Cllr Eric Norman will contact Badgworthy Land company about these.</li> <li>- Rachel Gilmour visited Snowdrop Valley at the weekend and had breakfast the next day in the Moorland Hall too.</li> </ul>	Cllr Eric Norman
